

A different view

Want to widen the influence of your message?

See more members attending an AGM without a bigger venue? Enable more customers to hear your product launch a week after it ended?

Now that's a different view.

Streams of Intelligence

directcast provide Internet based webcasting facilities that enables your message to reach the people in your world. However far away they are.

That sounds like a stream of intelligence.

Watching your World grow

We combine the best professionalism from the Broadcast TV and Business Internet Services sectors to provide a reliable and solid solution.

This is how you can help your audience watch your world grow.

This is directcast.
